

AMBER YINGLING
GIVING HOPE TO THE HOPELESS
IN THE PHILIPPINE ISLANDS
September 2019

A New Chapter

God has continued to open more doors for me. I applied with Baptist International Outreach this past May. I was able to attend their missionary training school in June. I learned so much in just a few days. I sat under the teachings of veteran missionaries and first term missionaries who gave some very good advice on what to expect on deputation and on the field. I am so thankful I was able to attend. I had my first interview with the BIO's General Director, Terry Childers and BIO's Asian Director, Dominic Tascarella and their wives. I was able to answer questions and share my heart with them. I went before the BIO Executive Council on August 8th, and I am so excited to announce that I am officially part of Baptist International Outreach family.

I am a Licensed Practical Nurse; I love caring and helping people. I have been at my current nursing job for a little over three years now. I am thankful for the opportunity to grow and learn in an urgent care setting, but the Lord is choosing to shut these doors. I will be resigning from my full-time position to become part-time, which will enable me to start deputation full-time. Though I am sad that these doors are closing. I am so excited for all the new doors that will be opening. My God is so great, and He has shown me in so many ways that he will provide for me. I have not started deputation yet, and I am already at 10% of what I need to return to the Philippines.

I am currently working on getting my presentation and display done before my scheduled meetings in October. I am happy to announce that my website is completed and working. You can go and check it out at: hope4thehopeless.net. I am so thankful for long-time friends and family that are helping me get everything together and ready to go. Amanda Berg (missionary kid and current graphic design student) helped design my prayer card. If you and your church are interested in me coming and sharing what the Lord has called me to do you can contact me by my cell phone or my email. For those of you who would like to start supporting me financially, you can do so now. Send your support to Baptist International Outreach, P.O. Box 587, Jefferson City, TN 37760. Make sure to write the check out to Baptist International Outreach or BIO and on the memo line place my name or account number 930. If you would like to donate online you can go to <http://biomissions.org/donor-information>. Most importantly please pray for me as I start my journey to the Philippines. Please pray for my safety, my health, and that the Lord will be glorified.
